

DISCOVER WSU'S CAMPUS GEMS

Explore Washington State University's 620-acre core campus in Pullman and you'll find classic architecture and cutting-edge technology thriving side-by-side. You'll also discover a lively campus brimming with educational activities, cultural opportunities, and sports events.

While you're here, we hope you'll make time to visit these popular campus hot spots:

1

Grizzly Bears

Get up close to these majestic wild animals—we're the only educational institution in the world to house adult grizzlies for research. The areas of research focus include nutrition, ecology, physiology, behavior, reproduction, learning, and memory.

Open approximately April to October, when visitors may view the bears foraging or playing in the exercise yard, splashing in the pool, or lounging in their outdoor runs.

Museum of Art

A showcase for the creativity of campus, regional, national, and international artists, MOA strives to provide meaningful encounters with creativity and innovation. The museum is a member of the Washington Art Consortium, a group of seven museums in the state that co-own three distinct collections of drawings, prints, and photographs by significant modern and contemporary artists.

Open Monday through Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (until 7:00 p.m. on Thursdays). Closed on Sundays, holidays, and days the University is closed.

Summer hours: Tuesday through Friday, noon to 4:00 p.m. Closed Saturday through Monday. Admission is free.

Student Recreation Center

Tone your abs and flex your biceps by working out at this sparkling facility, which offers a seemingly endless choice of fitness and recreational opportunities. You'll find more than 200 pieces of cardio and weight equipment, seven courts for basketball, volleyball, and badminton, a 31-foot-high climbing wall, a five-lane lap pool, an elevated four-lane running/walking track, and much more.

Open Monday through Friday, 5:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 p.m., during the academic year. Hours vary on holidays, during the summer, and on days the University is closed. Memberships and daily passes available.

Palouse Ridge Golf Club and Banyans on the Ridge

Named the second-best collegiate course by Links magazine in 2012, Palouse Ridge offers challenging golf and panoramic views of the area. Designed by golf course architect John Harbottle III, the course is patterned after the classic courses of Scotland. The Audubon Society saluted Palouse Ridge for environmental excellence in 2010. Banyans offers fine dining with spectacular views.

The golf course is open sunup to sundown, seven days a week, March 1 through November 15. The golf shop and Banyans are open year-round.

Compton Union Building (CUB) and The Bookie

Best known as the CUB, the student union serves as the heartbeat of campus life. There are currently over 300 clubs that organize events inside and outside of the building to engage students. Experience live music, catch a movie, or join friends in the bookstore to browse and enjoy a cup of Starbucks coffee. Friends, food, and cozy furniture await! Among the eateries are Panda Express, Subway, Pizza Pipeline, Freshens, Gridiron Burgers, and Carlita's Mexican Grill.

Open seven days a week except on holidays and on days the University is closed. Hours of individual businesses and offices vary.

Ferdinand's Ice Cream Shoppe and WSU Creamery

Mouth-watering ice cream flavors like Apple Cup Crisp and Cougar Tracks. Cheese so tasty (who hasn't heard of Cougar Gold?) it has received kudos internationally from cheese societies. An entirely self-funded operation, more than $450,000 of the creamery's annual revenues are paid in wages to students who work there.

Open Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., except on holidays and on days the University is closed. Open selected Saturdays, including Mom's Weekend and spring commencement.

Conner Museum

Did you know that the largest public collection of birds and mammals from the Pacific Northwest is on display here? Check out mounted moose, bison, bighorn sheep, and more than 700 other species. The museum traces its beginning to 1894, when Charles R. Conner, president of the Board of Regents, persuaded the state of Washington to donate its exhibits from the 1893 Chicago World's Fair to the fledgling Washington Agricultural College, as WSU was known in those days.

Open seven days a week, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., except on holidays and on days the University is closed. Admission is free.

Cougar Pride Sculpture

Cougar Pride, an 11-foot-tall bronze sculpture, stirs the passions of University supporters from its perch outside Martin Stadium. The nearly three-ton sculpture was commissioned by WSU alumnus Gary Schneidmiller, class of 1971, and created by Spokane artists Mike and Chester Fields. Since its installation in 2008, the sculpture has become a popular stopping point to snap photos of friends and family. Before each home game, the Cougar football team and fans gather in front of the sculpture before the team walks to the WSU fieldhouse.

Jewett Observatory

The James Richard Jewett Observatory hosts a number of stargazing events year-round to which the public is invited. Most public evenings feature a crescent moon, star clusters, nebulae, double stars, and other surprises. The observatory houses the largest refracting telescope in the state of Washington with a 12-inch double lens.

Open to the public on selected days. Admission is free.

Brelsford WSU Visitor Center

The Visitor Center serves as the gateway to the University for out-of-town and local visitors. Guests can get information about WSU and other regional attractions. Interactive displays and wall graphics provide an overview of the University's history, teaching, research, and outreach activities. Three 15-foot-high concrete letters that spell out W-S-U are the facility's most distinctive feature.

Open Monday through Friday, 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and Saturday, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Open special or extended hours during major campus events, including Mom's Weekend, Dad's Weekend, and home football games.
