Explore Washington State University's 620-acre core campus in Pullman and you'll find classic architecture and cutting-edge technology thriving side-by-side. You'll also discover a lively campus brimming with educational activities, cultural opportunities, and sports events.

DISCOVER WSU'S CAMPUS GEMS

Grizzly Bears
Get up close to these majestic wild animals—we're the only educational institution in the world to house adult grizzlies for research. The areas of research focus include nutrition, ecology, physiology, behavior, reproduction, hearing, and immunology.
Open approximately April to October, when visitors may view the bears foraging or playing in the exercise yard, splashing in the pool, or lounging in their outdoor runs.

Museum of Art
A showcase for the creativity of campus, regional, national, and international artists, MOK strives to provide meaningful encounters with creativity and innovation. The museum is a member of the Washington Art Consortium, a group of seven museums in the state that co-own three distinct collections of paintings, prints, and photographs by significant modern and contemporary artists.
Open Monday through Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (until 7:00 p.m. on Thursdays). Closed on Sundays, holidays, and days the University is closed.

Student Recreation Center
Tone your body and flex your brace by working out at this sparkling facility, which offers a seemingly endless choice of fitness and recreational opportunities. You'll find more than 200 pieces of cardio and weight equipment, seven courts for basketball, volleyball, and badminton, a 31-foot-high climbing wall, a free-form lap pool, an elevated four-lane running/walking track, and much more.
Open Monday through Friday, 5:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 p.m., during the academic year. Hours vary on holidays, during the summer, and on days the University is closed. Memberships and daily passes available.

Palouse Ridge Golf Club and Banyans on the Ridge
Named the second-best collegiate course by Links magazine in 2012, Palouse Ridge offers challenging golf and panoramic views. Designed by golf course architect John Harbottle III, the course is patterned after the classic courses of Scotland. The Audubon Society saluted Palouse Ridge for environmental excellence in 2010. Banyans offers fine dining with spectacular views.

Compton Union Building (CUB) and The Bookie
Best known as the CUB, the student union serves as the heartbeat of campus life. There are currently over 300 clubs that organize events inside and outside of the building to engage students. Experience live music, catch a movie, or enjoy friends in the bookstore to browse and pick up a book to take home! Enjoy a variety of food and your favorite beverages in over 200 self-funded operations. The facility receives kudos internationally from cheese societies. An entirely self-funded operation, more than $450,000 of the creamery's annual revenues are paid in wages to students who work there.
Open Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., except on holidays and whenever the University is closed. Open selected Saturdays, including Mom's Weekend and spring commencement.

Conner Museum
Did you know that the largest public collection of birds and mammals from the Pacific Northwest is on display here? Check out mounted moose, bison, bighorn sheep, and more than 700 other species. The museum traces its beginning to 1894, when Charles E. Conner, president of the Board of Regents, persuaded the state of Washington to donate its exhibits from the 1893 Chicago World Fair to the fledgling Washington Agricultural College, as WSU was known in those days.
Open seven days a week, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., except on holidays and on days the University is closed. Admission is free.

Jewett Observatory
The James Richard Jewett Observatory hosts a number of stargazing events each year to which the public is invited. Most public evenings feature a comet. The observatory houses the largest reflecting telescope in the state of Washington with a 12-inch double lens.
Open to the public on selected days. Admission is free.

Ferdinand's Ice Cream Shoppe and WSU Creamery
Mouth-watering ice cream flavors like Apple Cup Crisp and Cougar Tracks. Chance is truly (who hasn't heard of Cougar Gold?) It has received kudos internationally from cheese societies. An entirely self-funded operation, more than $450,000 of the creamery’s annual revenues are paid in wages to students who work there.
Open Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., except on holidays and whenever the University is closed. Open selected Saturdays, including Mom's Weekend and spring commencement.

Visitor Center
The Visitor Center serves as the gateway to the University for out-of-town and local visitors. Guests can get information about WSU and other regional attractions. Interactive displays and wall graphics provide an overview of the University's history, teaching, research, and other outreach activities. The Visitor Center also features three 15-foot-high concrete letters that spell W-S-U are the facility's most distinctive feature.
Open seven days a week, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., except on holidays and on days the University is closed. Admission is free.
